Mrs. Gibson and Major Locke to Be Wed Here To-day

Prospective Bride Is Granddaughter of Late Senator Me- the summer. Millan of Michigan.

The marriage of Mrs. McMillan Gib-ron of Washington and Major Morris Ernest Locke, U. S. A., will take place in this city this afternoon with a little company of the bride's relatives and a timate friends of both to witness the ceremony. Mrs. Gibson will be given in marriage by her uncle, Francis Wetmore McMillan, and will have her two small children. James McMillar Gibson and Mary Preston Gibson, as her only attendants. Major-Gen, William M. Mason Wright will be best man for Major Locke.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor the Church of the Covenant, who will come to New York from his summer home at Jamestown, R. I., especially to officiate. Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson, cousins of Mrs. Gibson, will come from Weld, their place at Brookline, Mass, to New York for the wedding, and others who will gather from their summer homes to witness the ceremony are Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Polk, Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia and her daughter, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks. Major Locke and his bride will spend neymoon motoring and will Mr. and Mrs. Anderson at Weld before returning to Washington.

Major Locke is on duty at the General Staff College, Mrs. Gibson is a granddaugnter of the late James Mo-Millan, who was United States Senator from Michigan.

Miss Kindleberger to Wed.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALL WASHINGTON, July 11 .- The marriage of Miss Pauline Kindleberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Kindleberger and granddaughter of Rear Admira David Kindleberger, to Major Maxwell Kirby, U. S. A., will take place in Washington on Tuesday, September 21.

Miss Marion B. Paterson Engaged. Mrs. Addie G. Paterson of Middletown, Conn., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marion B. Paterson, to Dr. G. Theron Blydenburgh, Park Hos-pital, 395 Central Park West, New York.

Social Notes.

Mrs. Louis Demuth and Miss Gladys Elsie Lindauer are at the Balsams, Dixville Notch, for July and August. Mr. and Mrs. F. Ziegfeld, Jr., have taken a house at Long Beach for a few weeks. They will have as their guests his parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. Zlegfeld of

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Richmond of Boonton, N. J., and Mr. A. Frank Shaw of Stamford, Conn., are on an automobile trip with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Shaw through the Adirondacks and

MME. MARIE RAPPOLD, SOLOIST. Six Thousand Persons Attend Concert at Stadium. More than six thousand persons tended the Stadium concert at City College last night. Mme. Marie Rappold was the soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra. The programme was as follows!

Gynt" Suite No. 1: Massenet, "Pleurez Mrs. J. J. Cabot (Catherine Rush) and mes yeux," from "Le Cid," Mme. Rap-Mrs. John W. Suter, Jr. (Margaret Sturmes yeux," from "Le Cid," Mme. Rap-pold: Kagner, (a) prelude to Act I. engrin," (b) introduction to Act Brattleboro.
"Lohengrin"; Bach-Gounod, "Medi-"Lohengrin"; Bach-Gou tation"; Gounod, "Plus grand dans son obscurities," from "The Queen of She ba," Mme. Rappoid : Chabrier, rhapsody Liszt's concerto in E flat for orchestra and plane will be the chief number on to-night's programme, Miss Berman Miss Menth, a Viennese musician, has been heard here with other orchestras She also is widely known through her piano records. On August 4 she will start for Paris and Vienna, where she is to play. She will return to New York in November for an American tour.

WAR SOCIETY'S NEW OFFICERS.

Major Graeme M. Hammond, U. S.

At the recent annual meeting of the New York Commandery of the Society of American Wars the following officers were unanimously elected for the ensu-

Commander, Major Graeme M. Hammond, M. D., U. S. A.; senior vice-com-mander, Brig.-Gen. Oliver B. Bridgman; junior vice-commander, Lieut.-Col. Ar-thur Poillon, U. S. A.; recorder, Clarence A. Manning, A. M., Ph. D.; treasurer, Edward Simmons Hall; registrar, William Emory Petitt; genealogist, Capt. Louis Everit de Forest, B. A.; historian, George Abbott Stevens; chancellor, Raphael Tobias; chaplain, the Rev. Will-Cox Pedersen; council, Col. Henry Sher-Clarence H. Eagle, Capt. Paul Gibert Theband, Capt. Louis Hays Dos Passos, Joseph Ferris Simmons. Delegates to National Commandery, Lieut. Rufus G. Shirley, Lieut. Alfred Keyes Schanze, U. 8. N.; Benedict J. Greenhut; alternates, Capt. Russell Kensey Dougherty, Lieut, jamin T. Van Nostrand, Committee on nomination, Major-Gen. John F. O'Ryan, chairman; Capt. E. Welles Kellogg, M. N. Y.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD-DIXVILLE NOTCH, N. H., July 11 .-There were many arrivals for Sunday at the White Mountain resorts. Lady Mortimer Davis of Montreal, who arrived in Quebec from England on board the Empress of France, will arrive soon at Bretton Woods by automobile. J. Watson Yuille will pass part of the at the Mount otel with Mr. and Mrs. William Yuille of Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. K. Hale of Montreal have opened Beaver Lodge at Dixville Notch. Mrs. Frederick Everett Thompson of New York will pass the season at the Crawford

Squadron A Plays Polo.

Special to This Sen and New York Herath-WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 11 .- Polo, one of the popular summer outdoor rec-reations at Gedney, has become active and the first game of the season was played this afternoon on the pole field near the hotel. The game was between two teams of Squadron A, who are in til September 1. charge of the field and who are arrang-ing a series of games. Practice games delphia have returned to the Homestead to complete their summer visit.

Arrivals at Gedney from New York for the season include Mr. and Mrz. F. Mrs. Sahin Gives Lanceson.
J. Desota, Mrs. J. C. Myers, Mr. and Special to The Sun and New York Health. Mrs. H. A. Whittock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dereisey, Arrivals at the Gramatan, Bronzville, for the summer include Mr. and Mrs. A. for the summer include Mr. and Mrs. A. her summer home. She is arranging for J. Falck, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Griggs, a Republican lawn party to be given Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. W. A. Mann of Mrs Home on Thursday, when Senator West York and Col. and Mrs. E. B. Glark William M. Calder will be one of the

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Scott, wh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Guthrle at Locust Valley, L. I., have re-turned to Garden City, L. I. They will

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry-Osborn have gone to Saunders Town, R. I., for

Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney has returned to Westbury from New Haven and joined his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney.

home at Oakdale, L. I., where her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mra Henry James, are passing the summer

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Emery, son and Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Riker will go

Major-Gen. and Mrs. Charles F. Roe and their daughter, Mrs. Prescott Slade, have gone to Wyoming from Highland Schlermer, Frederick P. Sands, W. Falls, N. Y., to remain there until late in Woodward Phelps and George F. Lan-

July, when they go to the Adirondacks. Miss Dorothy Schieffelin will go Bar Harpor late this month.

Mrs. James F. D. Lanier, who re turned recently from Europe, has start ed for California to join Mr. Lanier.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Munroe, who have been occupying the house of Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray Young in Park avenue, have gone to Tuxedo.

returned to their home, at 22 East Fortyseventh street.

Washington.

The Minister of Cuba and Mme, de Cespedes have postponed their departure for Europe and the Minister, who is now in New York, will rejoin his wife at the legation to-morrow

Gov. James M. Cox. Democratic nom at Trails End, near Dayton

The Commandant of the Marine Corps and Mrs. Lajeune will remain at their quarters at Quantico, Va., until autumn when they will take possession of the Commandant's house, Marine Barracks, Washington, Mrs. Norman Williams has gone to Mrs. Norman Williams has gone to yacht Carolina, Dr. James C. Ayer; and formanhurst, her place at Dublin, the yawi yacht Uvira, Mr. Richard B. N. H., for the summer.

In Other Places.

The marriage of Miss Amy Owen Bradley, daughter of Mr. Richard M. Bradley of Boston, to Mr. Philip Hales Suter, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Wagner, march from "Tannhaeuser": W. Suter, will take place late in August at Brattleboro, Vt. Miss Bradley's atviolin solo, Eugene Dubols; Greig, "Peer tendants will be her four sisters, also

> Mrs. Alexander Winsor (Hope Ban croft) of Boston will spend a portion of Among those who appeared last night the summer with her mother, Mrs. Rob-were Frank Tinney and Miss Louise Al-

Mrs. Samuel Welldon of Boston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ger-ald Livingston Hoyt, at Beverly, where

Mr and Mrs Robert Treat Pain left their Waltham home on Saturday to sail for England on Thursday. They will motor through England and Scotland, later going to France. Robert T. Paine, Jr., and his tutor will travel with RESORT NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith and a dinner party at the Dugway in stockbridge last night in observance the French national holiday, which comes on next Wednesday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nigel Choimeley Jones, who are passing part of their honeymoon at the Dugway; Mrs. August Belmont, Mr. Roynon Cholmeley Jones, Miss Mary Lincoln Aldrich, Miss Miriam Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Beecher Stowe of New York, Mrs. Stowe and her ten in their log cabin in the woods near the Dugway.

Miss Mary McKay McCreery of New York is with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay C. Hoguet, in Stockbridge. Mrs. William B. Osgood Field, Miss Gertrude Parsons and Miss Heloise Meyer of Lenox started yearday for two weeks of salmon fishing at the Little Cascapaedia River, P. Q. Miss Mabel Chotte and Mrs. Carl A de Gersiorif are making a short stay with Dr. Pearce Bailey at Katonah,

Smith and Miss Isabel M. Smith of New York are at Heaton Hall, Stockbridge. Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings Barr and Mrs. Josiah Macy returned to New York

from the Hall yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Kobbe of New York are stopping with the Misses Marie O. and Helen J. Kobbé in Stockbridge. Miss Eliza M. Lansdale of Philadel phia and Mrs. Philip Van H. Lansdale of San Francisco are at the Greenock Int

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delevan Wetbefore Mr. Wetmore's departure for New

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stewart and Homestead from Pittsburg for a visit of four weeks.

Mins Elinor Bright gave a dinner to ten of her young friends on Saturday at Brightview and later took her guests to the Homestead Hotel for dancing and the "movies." Mrs. William D. Hoover, Mr. A. Reva Hoover and Miss Eleanor Hoover have arrived from Washington to remain un-

Charles H. Sabin gave a luncheon today to sixty guests at Bayberry Lond

Newport Society to Aid Musicale for | Show Lavishness in Entertainment to Be Given July 20.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HEMALD. NEWFORT, July 11 .- Women of soci-Mrs. William Bayard Cutting is at her ety are interesting themselves in charitable enterprises, and one of these will be the musicale on July 20 at the villa has it grown the fashion of late to dress of Mrs. Francesco P. Finocchiaro for the benefit of the American Women's daughter-in-law of the Hon. Mrs. Alfred Hospital. Among the additional pa-Anson, are passing the summer in Paris. tronesses for this event are the Baronness Romano, wife of the Italian Am-bassador; Princess Albert Radziwill, to their house this week at Seabright, Mmes. Charles S. Whitman, Lawrence L. Gillespie, Robert Gould Shaw 2d John R. Drexel, Harold Brown, G. M. Hutton, French Et Chadwick, Gustave J. S. White, George C. Logan, Rudolph

> Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw 2d gave a luncheon to-day at their cot-tage, Gull Rock. Mrs. Sinclair Gannon, wife of Capt. Gannon, U. S. N., gave a luncheon at her Champlin street cot-tage and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Tangeman gave a dinner this evening at their villa in Bellevue avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Richardson gave a large reception and tea this afternoon for Mr. Richardson's mother Mrs. Thomas Richardson of Washing

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forbes McCreery, who have been on a four months' trip to the Pacific coast and Honolulu, have returned to their home, at 22 Fast Forty. Edmund H. Morse, wife of Major Morse, Marine Corps, who is their Mr. and Mrs. Marion Eppley will leave Tuesday for an automobile trip to Bar Harbor, returning in ten days. Mr. and Mrs. William Fahnestock, Capt. Martin E. Trench, U. S. N., and Mrs. Trench, Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Whitehouse and Mr. Edward Condon The Minister of Denmark, Constantin registered at the Casino to-day.

Miss Katherine Lowe, who has been visiting the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker for several months, has returned to her home in Cleveland.

With the clear weather of the morning many persons visited the Country Club for a round of golf. There was also tea served on the veranda this afternoon.

Those registering at the clear weather of the morning many persons visited the Country Club for a round of golf. There was also tea served on the veranda this afternoon.

who are at their villa, the Orchards nee for President, and Mrs. Cox are ex-pected late this month as the guests of penter, who are with Mr. D. W. Flin Messrs. S. H. Byrne and Gilbert C. Carwho are now visiting Gov. and Mrs. Cox J. R. Hatmaker and Trails End. near Party of the Cox J. R. Hatmaker and Mrs. Henry Clews at the Rocks; and Messre. Deming Miller, C. B. Breckwirth and E. Pennington Pearson. Mr. Henry Walter was here to-day, arriving this morning on board his steam yacht Narada with several guests, and leaving again for the westward this evening.

Other arrivals include the schoone ter, Mrs. Chauncey Hackett, are at Buena Vista Springs, Pa., for the sea-MISS NELLIE REVELL with a party of guesta.

About $2,000 Obtained for Press Agent, Ill in Hospital.

Many stars of the stage appeared it ketches, songs and dances at the testi onial performance last night for Miss Neille Revell, theatrical press agent, who for more than a year has been a patient in St. Vincent's Hospital.

It was estimated that more than gis). The Bradley summer home is at $2,000 was obtained for the writer by the benefit. At a similar entertainment receipts were $1,800.

len in a comedy skit from "Tickle Me courtesy of Arthur Hammerstein); the 'Alice Blue Gown" number from "Irene, by Miss Patti Harrold of "Irene," Harry Tierney, composer, at the plane; Eddie Cantor, Bert Kalmer and Harry Ruby in Beau Brummells of the Stage"; Nora Bayes, assisted by her "shadow," and Charles Winninger, Mile, Dazle, George White, Miss Ann Pennington, Lou Holtz and thirty girls from George White's "Scandals of 1920"; George Mc Kay and Rene Riano from "Honey Rooney and Band, Miss Stella Mayhew, Mansfield Scott's novel, "Behind Red comedienne, with Miss Billie Taylor, Curtains." Harold Lloyd was here also "Chic" Sale, Savoy and Brennan, Miss in "High and Diszy," in which he appropriate the Strand Nan Halpern in her Song Cycle by William B. Friedlander: Van and Schenck, fullet in the One Girl Revue; Pee-Wee Myers and Ford Hanford, the Boys from Arkansaw; the Misses Jane and Kath erine Lee; Miss Louise Groody and Wellington Cross of "The Night Boat" company. Julius Tannen was master o

50,000 K. OF C. EXPECTED. Important Matters Before Augus Convention Here.

Fifty thousand Knights of Columbu are expected to attend the thirty-eighth annual supreme convention which opens August 1, with headquarters in the Commodore. The large attendance is expected because of the proposed en-largement of the work of the order. The recent convention in Chicago adopted a recommendation for the expenditure of $7.000,000, the remainder of the war fund, for establishing free night schools for former service men and women. A detailed report of this

At the close of the convention the Knight of Columbus pilgrimage, headed by Supreme Knight James A. Fraherty of Philadelphia, will sall for France.

BOOKS FOR POLISH ORPHANS.

Polish orphans who are under the care of the Junior Red Cross in converted Russian barracks in Blalystok are to have for their reading the children's stories upon which American hildren are accustomed to feast at an early age. Through a gift by Barnard College to the Junior Red Cross, 500 juvenile story books, among them "Robinson Crusos," "The Swiss Family Robinson" and the "Jungle Books," translated into Pollah, have been sent to the

There are 1,000 orphans now housed there. A trade school in which skilled workmen from the refugee camp in Bialystok act as instructors recently

A concert under the auspices of Co-Franko Goldman. A special pagrammen the been arranged for the entertainment of the numerous patients. umbia University will be given at the

The Mesers. Shubert announce that The Meers. Shubert announce that the Century Promenade with its two musical revues, "The Century Revue" and "The Midnight Rounders," posi-tively will open to-night. There was a private performance of both plays last night for representatives of the press.

Women's Hospital Interior Decoration

Many Become Patronesses of Mrs. Mildred Chaplin Appears at the Strand in 'The Inferior Sex.'

> The trail of the interior decorator lies heavy over the cinema. Just as the most important feature of nine so-called picture plays out of ten is to dress the abundance of Italian cinquecento draperies, cassones abound and the films are littered with period rooms, This was just as true of the new jictures in one theatre yesterday as in another.
>
> Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin is related, at least by marriage, to the aristocracy of the movies, so she had richly Sex," which was new at the Strand. It is a First National product, which sounds to the uninitiated as impressive as a bank. The piece is said to be taken from a play of the same name by Frank Stayton. Mrs. Chaplin is pretty in a dainty way and when she looks out at the audience with mild agitation mirrored in her wide open eyes the art of the cinema seems in its best estate.

"The Inferior Sex" differs in no percaptible respect from a score or more of nilar pieces. Any late arrival might confuse them without damage to his own pleasure or injustice to the produc There are the same modishly dressed wives, the same arrogant or indifferent husbands and the timely parlor snake. There are backgrounds of overrooms or moonlit exteriors-in deed, none of the prevailing features of the sentimental picture play are lacking. down to the swiftly moving motor cars. There is a solitary novelty of linking the escapade of a foolish wife with the prevailing interest in oil speculation.

Unconscious Comedian Revealed.

Morton Sills brings some suggestion of the mimetic art into the proceedings and in John Streppling as a fat husband there was revealed an unconsciou comedian of unlimited possibilities. And he was funniest when he ran,

The usual topical views which seem so splendidly vital in comparison with every other picture were on the programme, as well as the horn rin spectacles of Harold Lloyd and some nic cartoons.

hero of Edward Peple's popular fiction about the sculptor who became famous, and what was still more interesting to married his little ward after he had grown sensible enough to realize that she was a young lady and quite old enough for him. This is the most important episode of "The Prince Chap," which was so popular in its dramatic Mr. Meighan moved engagingly in London, in which there is a violation convention, as American artists usually go to Paris in books and plays. Artists suggest studios and they sugest models and of course models canot be realistic and go about clothed like Red Cross nurses. But an intelli-gent director like William de Mille would e expected to take advantage of any such opportunity. He did not disappoint his admirers. The photography was in several scenes uncommonly fine Charles Chaplin revived one of his opular old extravaganuas in "The Imgrant." There were nature pictures by Curator Ditmars and the usual pictorial

Robert Warwick as a Chauffear. Robert Warwick was a chauffeur in Jesse Lasky's "The City of Masks," a name. There were some characteristic views of New York life, and they were was revealed with apparently gray hair in the first picture. But it only happened that he was in a snowstorm. There were various other pictures to fill out the long programme. H. B. Warner was in a tense detective play, "One Hour Before Dawn," at the Capitol. There was no extraneous feature to detract from the interest of the rarrative, which was cut close to the Kay and Rene Riano from "Honey! bene. The play was adapted from Girl": John Steel of the "Follies": Pat bene. The play was adapted from Roopey and Rand Miss Stella Maybew Mansfield Scott's novel, "Behind Red peared at the Strand. Herbert Rawlinson is at the Broadway Theatre in "Man and His Woman, with Charles Chaplin in the third week of his buriesque of "Carmen." jungle pictures are on view at the Asto and there are views of actual battles in France at the Park Theatre.

NOTES FROM THE THEATRES.

Miss Elise Bartlett, Louis Albion and James Lounsbury have been added to the cast of "Rerambled Wives," which Adolph Klauber will present in New York in August, and in which Roland Young and Miss Juliette Day will have the leading roles.

Rehearsals will begin on Wednesday for "The Lady of the Lamp," Earl Carroll's sew play, to be presented by A. H. Woods at the Republic Theatre on August 16, following two days at Stamford and a week at Atlantic City.

night schools for former service men and women. A detailed report of this plan will be laid before the convention. About 300 delegates have voting power. The convention is expected to make an official declaration as to the Knights of Columbus statue to Lafayette to France, and a baton to Marshal Foch. At the close of the convention the "The Night Boat" will enter its twent ourth week to-day at the Liberty Theatre.

Miss Blanche Yurka, who will play the role of the sister in the new Brieux comedy, "The Americans in France," which Lee Dirichstein and Les Shubert are to present in New York in about two weeks, played her first important part in "Is Matrimony a Failure?" Mr. Ditrichstein staged this play. Sam H. Harris has added another play to his list, a comedy entitled "The Rag o' Tag Man." by Sydney Toler. He will place in re-hearsal to-night "The Champion," by Thomas Louden and A. E. Thomas.

Louden and A. E. Thomas.

The cast engaged by Comatock & Gest for the new Frederic and Fanny Hatton comedy, "The Checkerboard," which goes into rehearsal to-day, includes Jose Ruben, Dornald McConald, Norval Keedwell, Fred Tiden, William Williams, Misses Miriam hears, Dorothy Tierney, Kate Mayhew, Edna Von Bulow and Zola Talma, William Eville and John Mackensie.

A theatre party of 110 persons from the United Tire Convention, in seasion here, will attend the Ed Wynn Carnival at the Selwyn Theatre to-night.

A cable message from his London office yesterday confirmed the recent announcement by William Morris that he had obtained Joseph Histop, Scottish tenor, for a series of concerts following the season of the Chicago concerts necles of concerts following the season of the Chicago opera in this country. The contract for the singer's appearance here is said to have been signed.

For the role of the Suffees in Oscar Asche's new play, "Macoa," to be produced at the Century Theatre in September, Morris Gest has obtained a young actor from California whose identity be retused to reveal.

New Picture Plays EMPRESS EUGENIE DIES AT GREAT AGE

om Painting by Winterhouther

Continued from First Page.

nandez de Montijo, Duke of Peneranda, Thomas Meighan visualizes well the and Maria Manuela Kirkpatrick of ero of Edward Peple's popular fiction Closeburn, Dumfriesshire, Scotland. Her maternal grandfather was William Napoleon to aid her husband Eugenie Kirkpatrick, United States Consul at obtained an interview for her and added the spectators at the Rivoli last night Malaga, who was a native of Scotland her own entreaties to those of her friend, but a naturalized American. Eugenie but reasons of state prevailed. was educated in Spanish and French In 1865, when Napoleon was heading convents. As a little girl she was a an expedition against Algeria, Eugenic maid of honor to Queen Isabella of was Regent again, and she took advan-Spain, but a scandal in which her temperamental mother figured caused strong religious party in the Senate, in the disappearance of the Montijo family through the varied scenes of artist life from court. After 1834 Eugenie lived in Parls with her mother and sister, who became the Duchess of Alba. Eugenie became a frequent visitor at French watering places, where her to her a flock of young noblemen. At the age of 25 she has thus been described "Tail, graceful, with exquisite neck and shoulders, which she liked to display; with a dazzling complexion, abundant golden hair drawn back to show the classic contour of her head, and large blue eyes that were melting and brilliant by turns, with mysterious sorrows in their depths; high spirited, accomplished, speaking French, English, Spanish and Italian: a fearless rider, a bewitching dancer, dressing marvellous-iy, during all things indress, manner and speech, yet doing what was most daring with a chic that disarmed censure—she orge was just the woman to inflame name. There were some characteristic One of those who courted her was Prince could marry.

Barr McCutcheon's novel of the same or captivate a society."

Courtship and Marriage.

But presently Napoleon himself fell in love with the irresistible Eugenie. He crowds. at first had no thought of marrying her, for he wished to ally himself with one of the established dynasties. In November, 1852, the Countess de Montijo and her daughter were invited to Fontaincbleau, and in the hunting parties Na-poleon kept close to the side of the skilful young horsewoman. A little later. skilful young horsewoman. A little later, according to one of the hundreds of stories told about her, whose authenticity cannot be proved, Napoleon, riding up a Paris street, saw Eugenie on the The Bonapartes lived quietly at up a Paris street, saw Eugenie on the balcony of the house where she was staying, which happened to be next door to

"How can I reach you, Mademoiselle?" "By the church door," was her pointed

At another time, playing blind man's buff at Compeigne, Napoleon caught Eugenie, and, according to the rules of the game, placed a crown of flowers on "Sire," she said, apparently thinking "Sire," she said, apparently thinking genie fainted. When she recovered she if the crown of Josephine, "this crown said, "Fate is very cruel. I feel now is too light."

the betrothal in a speech calculated to was so fearful of camera men and tour-please his people and confound those lets that she were a heavy black lace who feared he was making a mesalli-veil and dark spectacles. who feared he was making a mesalli-ance. He reminded them that in the known to me, with whom an alliance would have had advantages mixed with sacrifice. Endowed with all the qualities of the soul, she will be the ornament of the throne, and in the day of danger she will become one of its courageous

They were married at Notre Dame on January 30, 1853. As she rode in state from the solemn celebration the people of Paris acclaimed this woman of remarkable beauty who wore no jewels and who wept at the cries of "Long live the Empress!" The match was a great popular success, although S. Coler, Commissioner of the Depart-the royal families of Europe and the ment of Public Welfare, to equip a old aristocracy of France were inclined to keep at arm's length and bear in mind that the aspiring Napoleon had been curtly refused by almost every eligible esa before offering a throne to the beautiful but comparatively humble Spanish girl. This kind of ostracism embittered Eugenie.

Reid Brilliant Court.

e court of Eugenie was the most did of her time. Balls at the Tullebirth of her son crinoline was invented for her and soon crinoline was in vogue internationally. Even the Bourbons whom she had supplanted dressed their hair a la Eugenie.

It was through her ready sympathy that the Empress won the lasting affecand her consort were crossing to Calais in a yacht as the guests of Napoleon and Eugenle Prince Albert had to make a little speech. Victoria, afraid that he would fail, trembled violently. The Em-press, observing her agitation, slipped her hand under the table, and forgetting formallity, clarked the cold her of the formaility clasped the cold hand of the English Queen and clung to her until the speech was successfully ended. The friendship that began at that moment never weakened. Years afterward the Queen frequently visited Eugenie in her English retreat, and when Napoleon and then the young Prince died it was at Victoria's behest that they had state

On March 16, 1856, three years after the marriage of Eugenie, her son, the Prince Imperial, was born. It was in 1859 that she and the Emperor visited Queen Victoria in England. The Order of the Garter was bestowed on Na-poleon and Victoria buckled the insignia on his knee. In that year also Na-poleon led the war in Italy and during his absence Eugenie acted as Regent. Her ambitious dreams had assumed large proportions for the sake of her son. Sh: assumed the role of adviser in camera to the throne. It was the spoch of Eugenie's greatest triumphs. Other overeigns reluctantly acknowledged her as an equal. Raphael's Madonnas were taken from the Louvre to adorn her Theophile Gautier wrote an ode to her. Theodore de Banville made her the subject of a pastel in prose. Cabanel painted her portrait. She was adulated by princes, peasants, artists. And always she played her royal part The Empress had great influence over her husband, and accompanied the Emperor on his tours through France and helped him gain popularity. She was consulted on all important questions, and when the Emperor vaciliated she usually urged on him the bolder course. She upheld the temporal power of the Pope, thus endearing herself to the officials of the Roman Catholic Church, and she disapproved of the Emperor's libera policy toward the close of his reign she saw the Suez Canal opened and was welcomed by the Sultan and the Khedive in the Levant. The jewelled presents that she received, the illuminated cities and barges, reminded commentators o the progress of Cleopatra.

She urged upon the Emperor the send-fortune came and the unhappy Empress Carlotta crossed the Atlantic to urge In 1865, when Napoleon was heading erome Napoleon, whose jilting of her she never forgot. In 1867 the great exposition was pened in Paris and Napoleon had no trouble in getting all sorts of sovereigns o attend it. Particularly interesting, in the light of subsequent events, was the presence of the King of Prussia and als helr, and Bismarck, their Ambassaopposition to the schemes of Prince

For War With Prussia.

When the Franco-German war of 1870 was imminent Prince Jerome and the Empress were once more opposed, he counselling moderation and the use of iplomacy, she begging the Emperor to fight. She had her way and the troops parched out of Paris.

With the Emperor at the front and with him the boy for his "baptism of fire" Eugenie for the third time was Reupon whom she could depend for an aggressive policy. The disaster at Sedan has been attributed by some authorities Prince Jerome Napoleon, whose atten-tions were so marked that his cousin, directly to her interference. Four days sufficiently contrasted to show the metaonical side of the photograph in advantageous fashion. The admirers of French Republic, became alarmed lest proclaimed a republic restored. The mobility of the photograph is advantageous fashion. The admirers of French Republic, became alarmed lest proclaimed a republic restored. The mobility of the palace. Eugenie, fearing a strength of the palace. danger his hopes of restoring the Empire. So Louis Napoleon wrote to old ex-King Jerome, father of Prince Jerome, warning him that Mile. Montilo was not the kind of a woman whom the and Dr. Evans, an American dentist. repetition of the fate of Marie Antoin two foreigners—the Italian Ambassador and Dr. Evans, an American dentist,

Prince Metternich drove up to the at a prominent entrance and forced his way into the palace through elamorous crowds. The mob waited, but the Prince, leading the Empress, velled and plainly dressed, through private rooms to a hack at another entrance, got her away and drove to the home Evans. He guided her on a two days dangerous journey to the coast of Nor-mandy, and from there they crossed the

The Bonapartes lived quietly at 2187.
Chischurst. In 1872 Napoleon, whose health had been poor for some time, died. The hopes of Eugenie now were centred on her son. With his future in 142 West 44th st. Phone Bryant 1082. centred on her son. With his future in mind she became the head of the Imperialist party and from England diparty in France. Prevented by political reasons from entering the British army in 1879 he joined an expedition to Zululand, and was killed in a skirmiah When word came back to England Eu-that I shall live a hundred years." The Empire was proclaimed of the cereber 2, 1852, and in the course of the parts of Europe and America, and was eleven days fete at Compeigne the Emperor made up his mind to offer his hand. As well informed on happenings of the On New Year's eve there was a ball at day as if she were still part of them. The Tulleries. Eugenie complained that To the last she was invariably adshe had been insulted by the wife of a dressed as "Your Majesty." A little hasket platfum setting, lost between Workshe platfum setting, lost between Eugenie never lost her Eugenie felt that she was misunder past seventy years only one sovereign stood by the French nation. She thought stood by the French nation. She thought she had suffered opproblum because of the words attributed to her by Gambike Eugenie, was not of royal blood. ilke Eugenie, was not of royal blood.

"I have preferred," he said, "a woman unsupport to me with whom an ellipsee.

"We, whose every word and light to the saying: "We, whose every word and light to the saying word and light to the saying word and light to the act made history, seemed doomed to be that kings and queens belong after all

$1,500 FOR NURSES' LIBRARY.

ler's Campaign. A gift of $1,500 from James H. Po opened yesterday the campaign of Bird nurses' technical library and recruit more women in the nursing profession The contribution was announced with four training schools for attendant nurses during the year has taxed the ancial resources of the department. A library will be part of much neede equipment.

There are calls for medical literatur from chronic and general hospitals in the city, said Mr. Coler, and patients in spiendin of her time. Balls at the Tulle-ries became famous, and on Court Mon-days even the doubters gathered to pay tedious hours. Mr. Coler hopes to homage to the undeniable talent of Eu-genie as a social leader. Presently she was setting the fashions for Europe and America. The Csarins of Russia and Samuel Gordon, Well Known in Trenton, Dies at 75.

TRENTON, July 11.—Samuel Gordon, 75 years old, for forty-seven years mos-senger for different Governors of New Jersey, died to-day after a short illness. Gordon was one of the best known ne groes of the State and made considerable money in dealing in antiques. He was a Republican, but was reappointed ago he was a measenger in the United States Supreme Court at Washington. It was said to-night that six former Governors of New Jacobs priest since 1863.

Governors of New Jersey would act as honorary pallbearers at the funeral. They are William N. Runyon, Walter E. Edge, James F. Fleider, Edward C. Stokes, J. Franklin Fort and Foster

IN MEMORY OF MGR. CUSACK.

The memory of one of this city's most beloved priests, who rose from the ranks of a missionary to the bishopric of the Albany diocese and whom the late Cardinal Farley considered one of the ablest in his archdlocese, will be honored to-day in the Roman Catholic Church of St. John the Evangelist, Fifty-fifth street and First avenue, of which the Right Rev. Mgr. John J. Flood is rector. In this church at 10 o'clock a solemn requiers mass for the repose of the soul of the Right Rev. Thomas F. Cusack, of his death two years ago, will be cele-

Bishop Cusack was a native of New priesthood. He served in St. Teresa's Church, then went to Rosendale as rector, but resigned to help establish a parish in Yonkers. Later he became engaged in missionary work with the New York Apostelate and also acted as the Auxiliary Bishop of New York, For many years he was irremovable rector of St. Staphen's Church, East Twentyfriends.

G. C. WHITE DIES IN 79TH YEAR Prominent in Insurance Circles and Brooklyn Affairs.

George C. White, formerly a director in the Home Insurance Company and the Union Ferry Company, died Saturday at the Maples, Greenwich, Conn., in his seventy-ninth year. His death followed a lingering illness that grew out of an attack of bronchitis suffered last autumn Mr. White was an oldtime resident of ing of troops to Mexico to support the Archduke Maximilian of Austria in his Brocklyn and for the greater part of his life was identified with the affairs of pretensons to the throne. When mis Christ Episcopal Church there. He de-Hospital, of which he was one of the rustees. He was a member of the Hamilton Club of Brooklyn.

More recently Mr. White had lived in Glen Ridge, N. J. He leaves his wife, a daughter and two sons. Burial will be at Woodbury, Conn. - of Daniel Cooper, Dutch settler at Bas-king Ridge, N. J., in 1735, and for fifty years connected with the photo-engraving business, died Saturday night in his home in Sewaren, N. J., of pnau-monia, following paralytic strokes. He was 68 years old. Mr. Cooper was born in Freehold, N. J., where his father at one time was Mayor. He was edu-cated at Pennington Institute and the Freehold Military Academy and when 19 years old began work as a photo-engraver with the Moss Engraving Company, the first concern in that business field. He was with the Gill Engraving Company at the time of his death.

CHARLES MULFORD COOPER. Charles Mulford Cooper, descendant

EDGAR DENNIS.

Edgar Dennis, 63 years old, head underwriter of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company, 49 Wall street, died yesterday at the St. George Hotel, Brookvice-president of the insurance company at the time of his death many years ago. Mr. Dennis was graduated from Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute in 1874 and entered the insurance company em-

PHILIP H. FARRINGTON. BRISTOL, R. I., July 11.—Philip H. Farrington, for almost twenty years correspondent here of the Associated died of ptomaine poisoning in his me here to-day. He was taken ill at the last day of the trial races between the sloops Resolute and Vanitie off Newport when assisting in reporting the

LOST AND FOUND. LOST-Black pin seal bag, Riverside Drive, near Pist st., containing about $6 and reserv, Friday night. Reward. Riverside

LOST-Lady's purse on downtown Chambers st. station 7th av. subway; watch and money in purse. Reward. Bensonhurst 286 1923 84th st., Brooklyn.

LOST-Small mink neckpiece, Palace The-atre, Sunday matinee; please return; re-ward. MOORE, 63 Leonard st. Franklin 4654. LOST-Purple coat with marten collar and cuffs, July 3, near Sleepy Hollow Club entrance. Chelsea 5770. interest in LOST—Tuesday, dress, black and white, blue pre from all line; suitable reward. 7399 Cortiand.

Wearing Apparel.

Alt7 or Morningside 4834.

LOST—Platinum and diamond locket, platinum and diamond ring, large stone surrounded by small diamonds, platinum and diamond wrist watch, between New York av. and Abraham & Sitraus', travelling by St. Jahn's trollay car; liberal reward. Phone Lafayette 6800.

LOST—On Vanderbilt av., between 45th and 45th sts., early Saturday morning, July 3, thin gold watch with blue enamel band, broken end of this platinum and gold chain, attached; substantial reward. DONALD, 24 Nassau st. Phone 2538 John.

LOST—Kollnsky neckpiece, Saturday after-LOST-Kolinsky neckpiece, Saturday afternoon, between 2:30 and 3 P. M., in taxi West 86th st. and Broadway to Grand Central Station, Liberal reward if returned to 179 West 87th st.

trai Station. Literal reward it returned to 170 West Sith st.

LOST-Smail gold wrist watch, initials "G. E. B.," Saturday, 12-1, 5th av. bus, 23d-55th st., or 55th st., 5th av., 6th ave. Reward, JACKSON, 53 Irving Place. Stuyessant 2718.

LOST-July 10. Tiffany gold watch and chain, with jade button, initialled "A. R."; liberal reward, no questions asked. S. LEVY, Diamonds, 76 West 55th.

LOST-Watch, between Wanamaker's and Savoy Hotel, or July 9; platium wrist watch set in diamonds. Return to Mrs.

FREDERICK COOK, Hotel Savoy.

LOST-Diamond bar pin, between 64th st. Central Park West and 74th st. and Broad way: liberal reward. Call manager, Har-porley Hall. 1 West 64th et. perley Hall. 1 West 64th st.

LOST—Between St. Francis Xavier's Church, 5th av. and 8th st. ladv's gold watch, owner's name inside. Liberal reward,
Hotel Marlton. 3 West 8th st.

LOST—Diamond platinum bar pin Friday in the New York or Brooklyn shopping district or 7th av. subway; suitable reward offered. Phone A. D. L., 1606-J Prospect.

$200 REWARD

$200 REWARD

For return of platinum bar pin, containing I large and numerous small diamonds. Lost July 3, between Pleasantville and White Plans, N. Y. A. R. LEE & CO., INC., 15 William street. Cats and Dogs.

LOST—Between 11th and 34th sts., black dog; feet, tall, cheet and nose white; answers to name of Foolish; reward, Call Watkins 5325, the Queen of England dressed as did 6 GOVERNORS MOURN MGR. CODY DIES AT 812 NEGRO MESSENGER NOTED AS EDUCATOR

Prominent in North Jersey for. Half a Century.

The Right Rev. Mgr. Patrick Cody Roman Catholic clergy in New Jersey and pastor of of St. James Church, Newark, for more than a quarter of a contury, died in his home there yesterday, He was $1 years old and had been a

Mgr. Cody was born in Newark. He prepared for the priesthood here and abroad. After completing his early studies at Seton Hall College, South Orange, he became a student in the American College in Rome. He re-turned to Seton Hall for his ordination. oon afterward he became vice-president of the college.

During the years that Mgr. Cody served as a priest he was pastor of churches in New Brunswick, Jersey City, Camden, Hackensack, Englewood, Fort Lee and Elizabethport. His adminis tration of St. James Parish in Newark was marked by the building of a new church, a hospital, a school and a recotory and the clearing away of all debts connected with those buildings. In recognition of his work he was made.

moneignor in 1913. Mgr. Cody leaves a sister, Miss Mary Cody of 26 Beach street, Newark. The funeral will be conducted from the church Wednesday morning and the interment will be in the Cemetery of the Holy Sepulchre.

DIED.

Jody, Patrick Jody, Patrick Joseff, Charles M. Jury, Robert J. Danforth, Emeline Y. Navarro, M. L. T. De Schnitzer, Marcua Sichel, Leopold

Innks, Elizabeth

Hetherington, J. E. ANTHONY.—On Saturday, July 10, Margaret 11 M. Anthony. Funeral from her late residence, 223 Harrison st., on Monday, July 12, at 9:30 A. M.; thence to St. Paul Roman Catholic Church, Court and General gress sts. Mass at 10 A. M.

BARTLETT.—At Greenwich, Conn., July 16, 4920, Jessie Elizabeth, wife of Frederick.

A. Bartlett, daughter of James and Bertha Tideswell Nicol. Funeral private, on Wednesday, July 14, 11 A. M. 1978

BAUM.—Mr. James Edwin Baum of Omaha, Neb., at St. Vincent's Hospital on Saturday, July 10, Burial in Omaha Tissyday, July 13, BERNARD.—Frederick, The Funeral Church (Frank E. Campbell), Broadway, 68th Active Tuesday, 11 A. M. Auspices Active Fund. COPY.—On July 11, Right Rev. Mgr. Patrick Cody, V. S. Funeral Wednesday, July 14, 18t. James's Church, 9:30 A. M. Intermental in Cemetery of Holy Sepulchre.

COOPER.—On Saturday, July 10, 1820; Charles Mulford Cooper, age 68 years, age for the services at his late residence, Bewaren, N. J., on Tuesday, July 13, adox 2 P. M. Train leaves Jersey City 1:15 P. M., New Jersey Central. Interment Freehold, N. J.

JURRY.—On Saturday, July 10, 1920, Robert J. Curry. Funeral service at his late right of dence, 93 St. Mark's place (8th st.), on Monday, 12th inst., at 8 P. M. Interment at the convenience of the family. at the convenience of the family.

DANFORTH.—On July 8, 1929, in the 7810 year of her age, Emeline Young Danforth and daughter of the late William Bunker and Emeline Young Jenkins. Funeral services, at her late residence, 106 West 58th 21.

New York, on Monday morning, July Bunt at 11 o'clock, interment at Morrisonn, N. J., at convenience of family. Kinglet omit ficwers.

DENNIE —On Saturday, July 10, at his red.

omit ficwers.

DENNIS.—On Saturday, July 10, at his residence, Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, N. W2/2 agned 63 years, Edgar, beloved husband of Bessie Benedict Dennis, son of the level Charles and Frances Dennis and father of Harold Benedict Dennis and Mrs. William M. Nesbit. Funeral services at First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Clark and Henry sts., Brooklyn, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

DYER.—July 10, William J. Dwar. Strades.

YER.—July 10. William J. Dyer. Survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert MacDonald, and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah J. Fox and Mrs. Margaret G. Rolston. Funeral ser-vices at the Chapel of the Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Co., 161 8th 40.0 corner 18th gt., Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock. SCIKHARDT.-On July 16, 1920, at his residence, STI East 164th st., Henry Eckshardt, beloved husband of Emma Kalitake Eckhardt and son of the late Frank and Elizabeth Eckhardt. Funeral stryles, Monday evening at 8 o'clock at his late residence. Funeral private. HANKS.—July 10, Elizabeth, aged 73. Chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Crescation

Stephen Merritt Burtal and Cranato-Co., 161 8th av., corner 18th st. LAWRENCE.—In Providence, R. I., July 10, 1920, suddenly, Frank Mauran Lawrence, son of the late John S. Lawrence and Sarah Mauran Lawrence, aged 58 years. MARBLE.—At his home, 625 Ridge at., New ark, N. J., on Sunday, July 11, 1920, Harry Mills, husband of Helen Case Mare ble. Notice of funeral hereafter. Wants, ington papers please copy. MILLER. — Stratford Ashley, beloved huse a band of Grace E. Mackenste, on July 9. Services The Funeral Church, Campbell Building, Broadway and 96th at., on Tusaday, July 13, at 2 P. M.

McCarty, at 2 P. M.

McCarty, at his residence, 372 State state, at his residence, 372 State state, after. AVARRO.-M. Luise T. De Navarro, widow of Juan N. Navarro, residence 251 West of Juan N. Navarro, residence 251 West of 44th st., at Molrose. Mass., July 8, in her of 78th year. Requiem mass at Holy Cross Church, 329 West 42d st., Monday, Jugos 12, at 10 A. M. Interment Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

Charter, 25 M. Interment Gate of Heaven Cometery.

ROBINSON.—On Sunday, July 11, 1920, Issaes bel, beloved wife of David F. Robinson and daughter of Frederick and Jeenig Boxoid. Services at her late residence, 571 Sterling place, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, July 12, at 8 P. M.

SCHNITZER.—On Saturday, July 10, in his 55th year. Marcus Schnitzer, beloved hissafth of Rosa, father of Ella Toff. Funeral services at Sam Rothschild's Fared neral Chapel. 208 Lenox av., Monday, July 12, at 2 P. M.

Bathriah No. 10, U. O. T. S.—Sisters ave requested to attend the funeral of Mr. Marcus Schnitzer, on Monday, July 13, 1920, at 2 P. M., from Funeral Parior of Sam Rothchild, 208 Lenox av..

SICHEL.—Leopoid, late of 1024 Boston read, in on Friday, July 9, dearly beloved husband of Julia Sichel (nose Greenwald). descriptather and grandfather. Funeral from J. Milhelser & Bon funeral pariors, 1461 M. Members and friends of Phochix Widow and Orphan Ald Society, Hebron Lodge, No. 5, I. O. B. B., Phoenix Ladies Society and Joel Lodge, No. 6, U. T. O. B. B. Berthen are respectfully requested to attend.

BICHEL.—

Hebron Lodge No. 5, I. O. B. B.

ciety and Joel Lodge, No. 6, U. T. G. Bank are respectfully invited to attend.

SICHEL.—
Hebron Lodge No. 5, 1. O. B. B.—
Brethren are respectfully requested to $5.2 \text{X}$ tend the funeral of Brother Leopold Sichel, from Milholser's Funeral Parler, 1480 Lexington av., on Monday, July 12, at 2 P. M. N. A. Bartow, President, S. W. Goodman, Secretary.

STANSFIBILD.—Suddenly, July 10, 1920, William H., beloved husband of Marion Stansfield and father of Mrs. Frederick O. Zenke, Kenneth and Leon, brother of Mrs. William H. Fitzgerald and John Btansfield. Interment Camden, N. Y. Syracuse papers please copy.

WHITE.—On July 10, at "The Maples," a Greenwich, Conn., George C. White, formarly of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Glen Ridge, N. J. Funeral private. Interment at Woodbury, Conn., at convenience of the family.

WILKES, May The Funeral Church, Breadway, 66th st., Monday, 12 M. Ausplose, Actors' Fund.

IN MEMORIAM.

revered memory of JOHN E. HETHERINGTON, who passed away on July 12, 1913. NOTICES OF: Death

HETHERINGTON .- A tender tribute to the

Births Memorials Engagements Confirmations Annulments may be telephoned for publication in THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD any time up to midnight for the next day's sue. Call Fitzroy 6000.